ASABA MEMORIAL HIGH SCHOOL
07 APR 2026
LIGHTING THE PATH TO BRIGHTER TOMORROW

PART I: GENERAL PROVISIONS

Article 1: Introduction

Asaba Memorial High School is committed to providing quality education within a safe, disciplined, inclusive and supportive learning environment that promotes academic excellence, moral integrity, responsible citizenship, leadership, self-reliance and the holistic development of every student.

The school recognises that effective education requires cooperation among students, teachers, parents, guardians, school management, the Board of Governors and the wider community.

This Student Code of Conduct establishes the standards of behaviour, rights, obligations, disciplinary procedures and welfare protections applicable to every student enrolled at Asaba Memorial High School.

The Code shall guide students in making responsible decisions, respecting others, maintaining discipline and contributing positively to school life.

Discipline at AMHS shall be corrective, educational, proportionate and consistent with the dignity and rights of students. It shall not be based on fear, humiliation, violence or arbitrary punishment.

Article 2: Purpose and objectives

The objectives of this Code are to:

1. Establish clear and consistent standards of student behaviour.
2. Promote academic excellence, honesty, integrity and responsibility.
3. Maintain order, safety and discipline throughout the school.
4. Protect students from abuse, bullying, discrimination, harassment, exploitation and neglect.
5. Promote mutual respect between students, teachers, staff and parents.
6. Encourage peaceful conflict resolution and responsible decision-making.
7. Define student rights, responsibilities and prohibited conduct.
8. Provide fair and transparent procedures for addressing misconduct.
9. Strengthen cooperation between the school and parents or guardians.
10. Promote responsible leadership, community service and environmental stewardship.

11. Support the physical, emotional, social, intellectual and moral development of students.

12. Ensure that disciplinary practices comply with applicable Ugandan laws and child protection requirements.

Article 3: Legal and institutional framework

This Code shall be interpreted and implemented consistently with applicable laws and education requirements of Uganda, including, where relevant:

- The Constitution of the Republic of Uganda, 1995, as amended.
- The Education (Pre-Primary, Primary and Post-Primary) Act, 2008.
- The Children Act, Cap. 59, as amended.
- The Employment Act, 2006, where relevant to staff responsibilities.
- Applicable Ministry of Education and Sports regulations, guidelines and circulars.
- Applicable Uganda National Examinations Board rules and examination regulations.
- The school's Child Protection and Safeguarding Policy.
- The school's Staff Code of Conduct.
- Other approved school policies and procedures.

Where any provision of this Code conflicts with applicable law, the law shall prevail, and the school shall amend the affected provision.

Article 4: Scope and application

4.1. This Code applies to all students enrolled at Asaba Memorial High School, irrespective of class, age, gender, religion, disability, social background or boarding status.

4.2. It applies during:

a. Regular school hours.

b. Boarding activities and residence in school facilities.

c. School assemblies, lessons, examinations and practical activities.

d. Sports, clubs, competitions and extracurricular activities.

e. Educational tours, excursions and school-organised travel.

f. School-sponsored community activities.

g. Digital communication and online activities connected with the school.

4.3. Conduct outside school premises may be addressed under this Code where it directly affects student safety, the rights of others or the proper functioning of the school, provided the school acts lawfully and fairly.

4.4. All students shall be informed of this Code during admission, orientation and other appropriate school programmes.

Article 5: Guiding values

Every student shall be encouraged to demonstrate:

Discipline: Exercising self-control and observing lawful school rules.

Integrity: Acting honestly and rejecting cheating, theft and dishonesty.

Respect: Recognising the dignity, rights and wellbeing of others.

Responsibility: Accepting accountability for personal conduct and assigned duties.

Excellence: Pursuing continuous improvement in academic and extracurricular activities.

Service: Contributing positively to the school and wider community.

Tolerance: Respecting differences and resolving disagreements peacefully.

Environmental responsibility: Protecting school facilities and the natural environment.

PART II: STUDENT RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

Article 6: Fundamental rights of students

Every student shall have the right to:

6.1. Receive education in a safe, orderly and supportive environment.

6.2. Be treated with dignity, fairness and respect.

6.3. Be protected from corporal punishment, physical violence, sexual abuse, emotional abuse, harassment, exploitation, bullying and neglect.

6.4. Access educational opportunities without unlawful discrimination.

6.5. Receive appropriate academic guidance, counselling and welfare support.

6.6. Express concerns, opinions and complaints respectfully through established channels.

6.7. Receive clear information about school rules and disciplinary expectations.

6.8. Be heard before disciplinary decisions are made, subject to appropriate child protection procedures.

6.9. Have personal information handled confidentially, except where lawful disclosure is required.

6.10. Report abuse, misconduct or unsafe conditions without retaliation.

6.11. Access appropriate sanitation facilities, drinking water, necessary medical attention and other essential welfare provisions.

6.12. Be treated fairly during investigations and disciplinary proceedings.

6.13. Practise religion in accordance with applicable law and reasonable school arrangements.

6.14. Participate in authorised student leadership and extracurricular activities.

6.15. Receive reasonable support for disability-related or other recognised educational needs.

Article 7: General responsibilities of students

Every student shall:

7.1. Respect the authority of the Headteacher, teachers and other authorised school personnel.

7.2. Follow lawful instructions and approved school rules.

7.3. Attend lessons and compulsory school activities punctually.

7.4. Demonstrate honesty in examinations, assignments and other academic work.

7.5. Respect fellow students regardless of their personal circumstances.

7.6. Maintain cleanliness, proper hygiene and appropriate personal presentation.

7.7. Protect school property, textbooks, furniture, equipment and the belongings of others.

7.8. Avoid violence, bullying, harassment and intimidation.

7.9. Use respectful language and avoid insults, threats and offensive gestures.

7.10. Cooperate with legitimate school investigations and disciplinary procedures.

7.11. Report suspected abuse, serious misconduct and safety concerns.

7.12. Participate responsibly in approved school programmes.

7.13. Protect the good name of the school through responsible behaviour.

7.14. Respect the privacy and dignity of other students and staff.

7.15. Accept appropriate corrective measures imposed through fair procedures.

PART III: ACADEMIC DISCIPLINE

Article 8: Attendance and punctuality

8.1. Every student shall attend school regularly and punctually in accordance with the approved school calendar and timetable.

8.2. Students shall report to school at the designated time and attend all scheduled lessons, assemblies, assessments and compulsory activities.

8.3. Absence from school shall be explained by a parent or guardian or supported by another acceptable reason.

8.4. Students shall not deliberately miss lessons, assemblies, examinations or other compulsory activities.

8.5. A student who arrives late shall report to the designated school official before joining lessons.

8.6. Repeated lateness or absenteeism shall be addressed through counselling, engagement with parents or guardians, and appropriate corrective measures.

8.7. Students shall not leave school premises during school hours without authorisation.

8.8. The school shall maintain accurate attendance records and follow up on unexplained or prolonged absences.

8.9. Absences caused by illness, disability, family emergencies or other legitimate circumstances shall be handled sensitively and fairly.

Article 9: Classroom behaviour

Every student shall:

9.1. Enter classrooms promptly and prepare for learning.

9.2. Bring required books, writing materials and other approved learning resources.

9.3. Listen attentively and follow reasonable instructions.

9.4. Respect teachers and other students during lessons.

9.5. Avoid unnecessary noise, disruption and disorderly conduct.

9.6. Participate actively and responsibly in learning activities.

9.7. Seek permission before leaving a lesson except in emergencies.

9.8. Keep classrooms clean and protect furniture and learning materials.

9.9. Avoid eating, playing games or using electronic devices during lessons unless authorised.

9.10. Refrain from threatening, intimidating or interfering with teachers or fellow learners.

Article 10: Homework, assignments and coursework

10.1. Students shall complete assignments and coursework within prescribed deadlines.

10.2. Submitted work shall reflect the student's own effort, except where group work or authorised assistance is permitted.

10.3. Students shall not copy, purchase or submit work dishonestly.

10.4. Students shall acknowledge sources where required.

10.5. Students experiencing genuine difficulties in completing assignments shall communicate with the responsible teacher.

10.6. Teachers shall consider reasonable circumstances affecting completion, including illness, disability and serious family difficulties.

Article 11: Examination conduct

11.1. Students shall comply with internal examination regulations and applicable national examination rules.

11.2. The following conduct is prohibited:

a. Copying from another candidate.

b. Possessing unauthorised examination materials.

c. Impersonating another candidate.

d. Communicating dishonestly during examinations.

e. Using unauthorised electronic devices.

f. Stealing, leaking or improperly accessing examination materials.

g. Altering examination scripts or results.

h. Bribing, threatening or improperly influencing examination personnel.

11.3. Examination irregularities shall be investigated fairly and handled in accordance with applicable school and examination authority requirements.

11.4. Students shall be informed of examination regulations before sitting assessments.

PART IV: PERSONAL CONDUCT AND RELATIONSHIPS

Article 12: Respect for school authorities

12.1. Students shall treat the Headteacher, teachers, non-teaching staff, visitors and authorised school officials with courtesy and respect.

12.2. Students shall follow lawful and reasonable instructions issued in the course of school duties.

12.3. Disagreement with a school official shall not justify abusive language, threats, violence or deliberate disruption.

12.4. Students may respectfully question decisions or submit complaints through established procedures.

12.5. No student shall be punished merely for making a respectful complaint or reporting suspected wrongdoing in good faith.

Article 13: Respect among students

13.1. Students shall treat one another with dignity and fairness.

13.2. Fighting, threats, bullying, intimidation, extortion and harassment are prohibited.

13.3. Students shall not discriminate against others based on gender, disability, religion, ethnicity, family background, economic status or other protected characteristics.

13.4. Students shall respect personal boundaries and individual privacy.

13.5. Students shall not spread malicious rumours or deliberately damage another student's reputation.

13.6. Disagreements shall be resolved peacefully through appropriate dialogue, mediation or school intervention.

Article 14: Bullying and cyberbullying

14.1. AMHS maintains a zero-tolerance position toward bullying, meaning that every reported incident shall be taken seriously and addressed appropriately.

14.2. Bullying may include repeated physical, verbal, social, psychological or digital conduct intended to intimidate, humiliate or harm another person.

14.3. Prohibited conduct includes:

a. Beating, pushing or threatening other students.

b. Mocking, insulting or humiliating others.

c. Deliberate social exclusion intended to cause harm.

d. Extortion or demanding money and belongings.

e. Spreading harmful rumours.

f. Sending threatening or abusive electronic messages.

g. Sharing humiliating photographs, videos or personal information.

h. Discriminatory harassment.

14.4. Students shall report bullying to a teacher, counsellor, safeguarding officer or another trusted adult.

14.5. The school shall take appropriate measures to protect affected students and prevent retaliation.

14.6. Restorative approaches shall only be used where appropriate, voluntary and safe for the affected student.

Article 15: Sexual conduct, harassment and exploitation

15.1. Students shall respect the bodily autonomy, dignity and privacy of others.

15.2. Sexual harassment, sexual coercion, exploitation, unwanted sexual touching and sexually abusive behaviour are prohibited.

15.3. Students shall not:

a. Make unwanted sexual advances.

b. Use sexually degrading language toward others.

c. Pressure or threaten another person into sexual activity.

d. Distribute intimate or sexually explicit images of another person.

e. Engage in sexual exploitation in exchange for money, gifts, protection or favours.

f. Engage in behaviour that violates the school's safeguarding requirements.

15.4. Any suspected sexual abuse involving a child shall be handled as a safeguarding matter and referred to the appropriate authorities where required.

15.5. A student reporting sexual abuse shall receive appropriate protection and support and shall not be blamed for the abuse.

15.6. The school shall not substitute informal reconciliation for necessary safeguarding or criminal justice procedures.

Article 16: Language and communication

Students shall:

16.1. Use respectful and appropriate language.

16.2. Avoid insults, threats, abusive expressions and discriminatory remarks.

16.3. Communicate honestly with teachers, parents and school authorities.

16.4. Avoid deliberate misinformation, impersonation and malicious accusations.

16.5. Express disagreement respectfully.

16.6. Observe appropriate communication etiquette during assemblies, lessons and official meetings.

PART V: UNIFORM, HYGIENE AND PERSONAL PRESENTATION

Article 17: School uniform

17.1. Students shall wear the officially prescribed school uniform during school hours and designated activities.

17.2. Uniforms shall be kept reasonably clean, neat and in good condition.

17.3. Students shall not deliberately alter the prescribed uniform without authorisation.

17.4. Appropriate footwear shall be worn in accordance with school requirements.

17.5. Students shall wear prescribed sportswear during relevant activities.

17.6. Uniform enforcement shall be reasonable and shall not involve humiliation, physical punishment or unlawful exclusion from education.

17.7. Where a family faces genuine financial difficulty in obtaining uniform items, school management shall consider reasonable support or temporary arrangements.

Article 18: Personal hygiene and grooming

18.1. Students shall maintain appropriate personal cleanliness.

18.2. Hair and grooming shall be kept in a manner consistent with reasonable school standards, health and safety requirements.

18.3. Students shall maintain cleanliness of clothing, bedding and personal items.

18.4. Students shall use toilets, washing facilities and waste-disposal areas responsibly.

18.5. Grooming requirements shall be applied fairly and without degrading treatment or unlawful discrimination.

PART VI: SCHOOL PROPERTY AND ENVIRONMENT

Article 19: Protection of school property

19.1. Students shall take proper care of school buildings, classrooms, dormitories, furniture, books, laboratories, computers and equipment.

19.2. Students shall not deliberately damage, destroy, deface or misuse school property.

19.3. Students shall not write on desks, walls, doors or other surfaces without authorisation.

19.4. Students shall return borrowed school property in accordance with applicable procedures.

19.5. Suspected theft, vandalism or destruction of property shall be investigated fairly.

19.6. Any restitution or compensation arrangement shall be lawful, proportionate and based on established responsibility, with parents or guardians involved where appropriate.

Article 20: Environmental cleanliness

20.1. Students shall keep classrooms, dormitories, compounds and sanitation facilities clean.

20.2. Students shall dispose of waste in designated places.

20.3. Students shall protect trees, gardens, water sources and school surroundings.

20.4. Students may participate in age-appropriate environmental and community service activities under proper supervision.

20.5. Students shall not be required to perform dangerous, degrading or exploitative labour as punishment.

PART VII: HEALTH, SAFETY AND STUDENT WELFARE

Article 21: Health and medical care

21.1. Students shall promptly report illness, injury or other health concerns to an authorised staff member.

21.2. The school shall maintain appropriate procedures for responding to illness and medical emergencies.

21.3. Students requiring prescribed medication or ongoing health support shall be assisted in accordance with applicable school procedures and appropriate medical advice.

21.4. Students shall not be denied necessary medical assistance as a disciplinary measure.

21.5. Student health information shall be handled confidentially, subject to legitimate safeguarding and medical requirements.

21.6. Students shall observe reasonable health and hygiene precautions.

Article 22: Alcohol, drugs and prohibited substances

22.1. Students shall not possess, consume, distribute or sell illegal drugs or intoxicating substances within school premises or during school activities.

22.2. Students shall not attend school activities while intoxicated.

22.3. Students shall not pressure others to consume prohibited substances.

22.4. Suspected substance misuse shall be addressed through appropriate safety measures, parental engagement, counselling, medical referral and lawful disciplinary procedures.

22.5. Students requiring legitimate medication shall not be penalised merely for possessing or using it in accordance with authorised medical arrangements.

Article 23: Weapons and dangerous objects

23.1. Students shall not bring firearms, dangerous weapons, explosives or other unauthorised hazardous items onto school premises.

23.2. Tools and equipment used for legitimate practical learning shall only be handled under authorised supervision.

23.3. Any student who becomes aware of a dangerous object or threat shall report it immediately.

23.4. School management shall respond to serious threats through appropriate safety procedures and competent authorities.

Article 24: Emergency procedures

Students shall:

24.1. Follow emergency instructions issued by authorised staff.

24.2. Participate responsibly in fire drills and safety exercises.

24.3. Avoid creating false alarms.

24.4. Report fires, accidents, hazards and emergencies promptly.

24.5. Use designated evacuation routes and assembly points.

24.6. Avoid obstructing emergency equipment or exits.

PART VIII: DAY STUDENT RULES

Article 25: Arrival and departure

25.1. Day students shall report to school at the prescribed time.

25.2. Students shall use authorised entrances and exits.

25.3. No day student shall leave school during official hours without permission.

25.4. Students shall depart according to approved school arrangements.

25.5. Students shall observe road safety and responsible behaviour when travelling to and from school.

25.6. Parents and guardians shall notify the school of relevant transport or collection arrangements where necessary.

Article 26: Conduct outside school

26.1. Day students shall avoid behaviour that endangers themselves or others while travelling to and from school.

26.2. Students wearing school uniform shall conduct themselves responsibly in public.

26.3. Students shall not misuse the school's name or identity.

26.4. The school may address off-campus conduct where it has a direct and substantial connection to school safety or operations, subject to fair procedures.

PART IX: BOARDING STUDENT RULES

This Part applies whenever AMHS operates boarding facilities.

Article 27: Boarding admission and residence

27.1. Boarding students shall reside only in accommodation officially designated by the school.

27.2. Students shall comply with authorised boarding schedules and supervision arrangements.

27.3. Students shall not change dormitories or sleeping spaces without permission.

27.4. Boarding students shall not leave school premises without proper authorisation.

27.5. Boarding accommodation shall be managed in accordance with child protection, health, safety and welfare requirements.

Article 28: Dormitory discipline

Boarding students shall:

Article 29: Boarding meals and sanitation

29.1. Boarding students shall observe approved meal arrangements.

29.2. Students shall treat dining personnel and fellow students respectfully.

29.3. Students shall maintain hygiene in dining and sanitation areas.

29.4. Students shall not deliberately waste or contaminate food.

29.5. Food shall not be withheld as punishment.

29.6. Medical or other legitimate dietary needs shall be communicated and reasonably accommodated where practicable.

Article 30: Visitors and leave arrangements

30.1. Boarding students may receive visitors only in accordance with approved school procedures.

30.2. Visitors shall report to designated school authorities.

30.3. Students shall not leave with unauthorised persons.

30.4. Boarding leave shall be recorded and authorised through established procedures.

30.5. Emergency leave shall be handled promptly and sensitively.

30.6. The school shall maintain reasonable measures to prevent unauthorised access to boarding facilities.

Article 31: Night-time safety

31.1. Boarding students shall remain in authorised areas during designated sleeping hours.

31.2. Students shall not leave dormitories at night without legitimate reason or appropriate permission, except in emergencies.

31.3. Boarding staff shall provide appropriate supervision and accessible emergency assistance.

31.4. Students shall promptly report emergencies, threats, illness or suspected abuse.

31.5. Night supervision shall respect student privacy, dignity and safeguarding requirements.

PART X: TECHNOLOGY AND DIGITAL CONDUCT

Article 32: Mobile phones and electronic devices

32.1. Students shall comply with the school's approved rules governing mobile phones and electronic devices.

32.2. Unauthorised device use during lessons, examinations or restricted activities is prohibited.

32.3. Students shall not use devices to cheat, bully, threaten, exploit or harass others.

32.4. Students shall not record or publish images of other persons in circumstances that violate privacy or safeguarding requirements.

32.5. Any temporary confiscation of a device shall be documented, proportionate and carried out under an approved procedure.

32.6. Devices shall not be searched arbitrarily or in ways that violate applicable law and student rights.

Article 33: Internet and social media

33.1. Students shall use school internet facilities primarily for authorised educational purposes.

33.2. Cyberbullying, online harassment, impersonation and digital fraud are prohibited.

33.3. Students shall not create or distribute abusive or sexually exploitative content.

33.4. Students shall respect copyright, privacy and responsible digital citizenship.

33.5. Suspected online exploitation or abuse shall be reported through safeguarding procedures.

PART XI: STUDENT LEADERSHIP AND PARTICIPATION

Article 34: Student leadership

34.1. Student leadership shall promote service, responsibility, fairness and positive discipline.

34.2. Student leaders shall demonstrate exemplary behaviour.

34.3. Student leaders shall not abuse authority, intimidate others or impose unauthorised punishments.

34.4. Student leaders shall assist communication between students and school management.

34.5. Student leaders shall report safeguarding concerns to responsible adults.

34.6. The appointment or election of student leaders shall follow the school's approved procedures.

Article 35: Clubs, sports and extracurricular activities

35.1. Students are encouraged to participate in authorised extracurricular activities.

35.2. Students shall follow safety instructions and respect coaches, patrons, officials and fellow participants.

35.3. Bullying, hazing, dangerous initiation practices and harassment are prohibited.

35.4. Students shall protect equipment and facilities.

35.5. Participation requirements shall be applied fairly and with appropriate consideration for disability, health and other legitimate needs.

PART XII: PROHIBITED CONDUCT AND DISCIPLINARY CLASSIFICATION

Article 36: Categories of misconduct

Misconduct shall be classified according to its nature, seriousness, circumstances and impact.

Classification shall guide appropriate responses but shall not replace individual assessment, safeguarding obligations or fair procedures.

36.1. Minor misconduct

Examples include:

- Occasional lateness without reasonable explanation.
- Failure to complete assignments.
- Unnecessary classroom noise.
- Minor uniform violations.
- Littering.
- Failure to follow a reasonable routine instruction.
- Minor disruption of school activities.

Minor misconduct shall ordinarily be addressed through guidance, counselling, reminders and proportionate corrective measures.

36.2. Serious misconduct

Examples include:

- Repeated deliberate absenteeism.
- Bullying or intimidation.

- Theft or deliberate vandalism.
- Examination malpractice.
- Repeated defiance involving substantial disruption.
- Fighting or threatening behaviour.
- Serious misuse of digital technology.
- Unauthorised departure from school that creates a safety concern.
- Harassment or discriminatory abuse.

Serious misconduct may require a formal disciplinary process, parent or guardian involvement and additional support measures.

36.3. Very serious misconduct

Examples include:

- Serious physical assault.
- Sexual violence, coercion or exploitation.
- Possession of dangerous weapons.
- Serious drug-related misconduct.
- Arson or deliberate acts creating grave danger.
- Serious threats to life or safety.
- Organised extortion or violent intimidation.
- Other conduct involving suspected serious criminal offences.

Such matters shall trigger immediate safety assessment, appropriate safeguarding procedures and referral to competent authorities where necessary.

A student accused of very serious misconduct shall still receive fair treatment and appropriate procedural protections.

Article 37: Prohibited disciplinary practices

The following are strictly prohibited:

37.1. Corporal punishment.

37.2. Beating, slapping, kicking or any other physical assault.

37.3. Humiliating or degrading punishment.

37.4. Denial of food, water, necessary sanitation or medical treatment.

37.5. Dangerous physical exercises imposed as punishment.

37.6. Forced labour or exploitative work.

37.7. Collective punishment without individual responsibility.

37.8. Sexual harassment or other abuse disguised as discipline.

37.9. Unlawful detention, confinement or restraint.

37.10. Punishment imposed without regard to relevant facts, fairness and student welfare.

PART XIII: DISCIPLINARY PROCEDURES AND DUE PROCESS

Article 38: Principles of student discipline

All disciplinary measures shall be:

1. Lawful.
2. Fair and impartial.
3. Proportionate to the misconduct.
4. Appropriate to the student's age and circumstances.
5. Consistent with safeguarding requirements.
6. Educational and corrective wherever possible.
7. Properly documented when the matter is serious.
8. Free from violence, humiliation and discrimination.

Article 39: Disciplinary procedure

When misconduct is reported, the following procedure shall ordinarily apply:

Step 1: Reporting and recording

The responsible staff member shall report the incident through the appropriate channel and record relevant facts.

Step 2: Initial assessment

School management shall assess the seriousness of the allegation, immediate safety concerns and whether safeguarding or statutory referral is required.

Step 3: Notification

The student shall be informed of the allegation in language appropriate to their age and understanding.

Step 4: Opportunity to respond

The student shall be given a reasonable opportunity to explain their account.

Step 5: Investigation

Relevant information shall be gathered fairly, without intimidation or coercion.

Step 6: Parent or guardian involvement

Parents or guardians shall be involved where appropriate, particularly for serious matters, unless doing so would create a safeguarding risk.

Step 7: Decision

An authorised school official or disciplinary body shall determine the appropriate response based on the evidence and applicable rules.

Step 8: Communication and documentation

The outcome shall be communicated appropriately and documented.

Step 9: Review or appeal

The student and parent or guardian shall be informed of available review or appeal arrangements.

Article 40: Corrective and disciplinary measures

Depending on the circumstances, lawful corrective measures may include:

40.1. Verbal guidance and counselling.

40.2. Formal reminders or warnings.

40.3. Written behavioural commitments.

40.4. Parent or guardian meetings.

40.5. Supervised restorative activities, where appropriate and voluntary.

40.6. Referral for counselling or other support.

40.7. Reasonable restitution for established property damage.

40.8. Behaviour monitoring and improvement plans.

40.9. Other lawful measures authorised under school policy.

Suspension, exclusion or expulsion shall only be considered in accordance with applicable law, authorised procedures and the student's right to education and fair treatment. Any such decision must take account of safeguarding and educational continuity.

Article 41: Appeals

41.1. A student or parent/guardian may request a review of a disciplinary decision.

41.2. The request shall be submitted to the Headteacher or another designated authority, depending on who made the original decision.

41.3. Where the Headteacher made the decision, an appropriate non-implicated authority shall conduct or oversee the review.

41.4. The appeal shall be considered fairly and without retaliation.

41.5. The outcome shall be communicated to the student and parent or guardian.

41.6. The school shall not restrict access to lawful external complaint or appeal mechanisms.

PART XIV: SAFEGUARDING AND COMPLAINTS

Article 42: Reporting abuse and safeguarding concerns

42.1. Students may report abuse, harassment, exploitation, bullying or unsafe conditions to:

a. A trusted teacher.

b. The Class Teacher.

c. The Senior Woman Teacher or Senior Man Teacher, where appointed.

d. The Child Protection Focal Person.

e. The Deputy Headteacher.

f. The Headteacher.

g. Another appropriate non-implicated authority.

42.2. Where a complaint involves the Headteacher or another senior official, the matter may be escalated through an independent Board channel or directly to the relevant statutory authority.

42.3. Students shall not be required to confront alleged abusers.

42.4. Good-faith reports shall be protected against retaliation.

42.5. Safeguarding matters shall be handled confidentially, subject to necessary disclosure for protection and lawful reporting.

42.6. Serious suspected abuse or criminal conduct shall be referred to competent authorities as required.

Article 43: Guidance and counselling

43.1. The school shall promote access to appropriate guidance and counselling.

43.2. Students experiencing academic, behavioural, emotional, social or family difficulties may seek assistance.

43.3. Counselling shall be respectful, confidential within safeguarding limits and free from intimidation.

43.4. Where specialised support is needed, the school shall facilitate appropriate referral within available resources and applicable procedures.

43.5. Counselling shall not be used to suppress reports of abuse or replace necessary protective action.

PART XV: PARENTS, GUARDIANS AND SCHOOL MANAGEMENT

Article 44: Responsibilities of parents and guardians

Parents and guardians shall:

44.1. Encourage their children to observe school rules.

44.2. Promote regular attendance and punctuality.

44.3. Communicate relevant welfare and health concerns to the school.

44.4. Respond appropriately to school communications.

44.5. Cooperate with lawful and fair disciplinary procedures.

44.6. Support students in completing academic work.

44.7. Respect school personnel and use established complaint channels.

44.8. Inform the school of circumstances that may materially affect student safety or welfare.

44.9. Refrain from encouraging violence, harassment or unlawful disciplinary practices.

Article 45: Responsibilities of the Headteacher

The Headteacher, Kyamanywa Patrick, shall:

45.1. Coordinate implementation of this Code.

45.2. Ensure that students, staff and parents are informed of its provisions.

45.3. Supervise the fair application of disciplinary procedures.

45.4. Ensure appropriate records of serious disciplinary matters.

45.5. Promote guidance, counselling and positive discipline.

45.6. Ensure safeguarding concerns are handled through appropriate procedures.

45.7. Refer serious matters to the Board of Governors or statutory authorities where necessary.

45.8. Monitor compliance and recommend policy improvements.

Article 46: Responsibilities of teachers and other staff

Teachers and other school personnel shall:

46.1. Model respectful and professional behaviour.

46.2. Apply school rules fairly and consistently.

46.3. Avoid corporal punishment and other abusive disciplinary practices.

46.4. Provide appropriate supervision and guidance.

46.5. Report safeguarding concerns promptly.

46.6. Maintain accurate attendance and relevant disciplinary records.

46.7. Respect student dignity, confidentiality and individual circumstances.
